GOOD DEAL ...OR NO DEAL!

By COLIN HURST news@sundaysport.co.uk

May's warning to the EU as she rules out staying in Single Market

THERESA May has warned fellow EU nations that she is ready to walk away from Brexit talks rather than accept a "punitive" deal.

In a speech setting out her 12 key objectives for EU withdrawal, Mrs May announced that Britain will leave the European single market but will seek a "bold and ambitious" free trade agreement to allow it to continue trading with its 27 former partners.

Mrs May confirmed that she wants to take Britain out of the jurisdiction of the European Court of Justice and restore control over immigration.

And she gave her strongest hint yet that the UK could leave the European customs union (CU), stating that she wanted to ensure "frictionless" cross-border trade but had an "open mind" on whether that should be done through associate membership of the CU or a completely new customs agreement.

She announced that MPs and peers will be given a vote on the final deal reached with the EU in talks under Article 50 of the treaties, due to be triggered by the end of March.

But she did not make clear whether a vote against any agreement would mean the UK staying in the EU or crashing out without a deal.

Mrs May said she was "confident" that a deal and a new strategic partnership between the UK and the EU can be achieved within the two-year deadline set out in Article 50, insisting that a good deal for Britain will also be good for Europe.

But she warned: "I know there are some voices calling for a punitive deal that punishes Britain and discourages other countries from taking the same path.

"That would be an act of calamitous self-harm for the countries of Europe. And it would not be the act of a friend.

"Britain would not – indeed we could not – accept such an approach.

"And while I am confident that this scenario need never arise – while I am sure a positive agreement can be reached – I am equally clear that no deal for Britain is better than a bad deal for Britain."

Mrs May said her plan would create "a truly global Britain, a great, global trading nation that is respected around the world and strong, confident and united at home".

Damage

But Labour leader Jeremy Corbyn said Mrs May appeared to be warning that she was ready to turn the UK into a "low-corporate taxation, bargain basement economy off the shores of Europe" if the EU did not give her everything she wanted.

And Liberal Democrat leader Tim Farron said: "Theresa May claimed people voted to Leave the single market. They didn't.

"She has made the choice to do massive damage to the British economy."

PM blasted by German MEP F-bomb tweet

EUROPEAN politicians seemed largely unimpressed with the content of Theresa May's first major Brexit speech, in which the Prime Minister announced the UK would leave the single market.

MEPs from across the continent took to Twitter as the speech unfolded, with one German MEP accusing the PM of "bluntly making fun of her electorate".

Jan Philipp Albrecht, a Green MEP for northern Germany, tweeted: "#May: Go f yourself EU but please don't let us down. whine whine"

He added: "Sad: Everything what #May tells her British people to achieve would be possible inside the European Union but will be daydreams outside it."

Kathleen Van Brempt, a Belgian socialist, tweeted: "The European Union is not a menu where the #UK can freely pick and choose to their liking."

Swedish Moderate MEP Christofer Fjellner wrote: "UK leaving the single market will come at a large cost. Negotiating new free trade deals with others to compensate won't be any easy task!"

Former Ukip leader and South East of England MEP Nigel Farage (above) tweeted: "I can hardly believe that the PM is now using the phrases and words that I've been mocked for using for years. Real progress.

"My worry is how long this is going to take."

Corbyn: PM will turn UK into 'bargain basement'

THERESA May is threatening to turn the UK into an offshore "bargain basement" economy, Labour leader Jeremy Corbyn has warned as he demanded more details on the PM's Brexit strategy.

Mr Corbyn expressed concern at the tone of Mrs May's keynote address on how she plans to handle looming "divorce" negotiations with Brussels.

He said: "Throughout the speech there seemed to be an implied threat that somewhere along the line, if all her optimism of a deal with the European Union didn't work, we would move into a low-tax, corporate taxation, bargain basement economy on the offshores of Europe.

"I think she needs to be a bit clearer about what the long-term objectives are."

And Liberal Democrat leader Tim Farron also accused Mrs May of a "theft of democracy".

He said: "Theresa May has confirmed Britain is heading for a hard Brexit. She claimed people voted to leave the single market. They didn't. She has made the choice to do massive damage to the British economy.

"Theresa May also made clear that she will deny the people a vote on the final deal. So instead of a democratic decision by the people in the country, she wants a stitch-up by politicians in Westminster.

"The people voted for departure – they should be given a vote on the destination. This is a theft of democracy.

"This speech was a mixture of vague fantasies and toothless threats to our nearest neighbours. At the moment Britain needs friends more than ever – she has succeeded in uniting the rest of Europe against her.

"When it comes to British prosperity and British democracy, she is waiving the white flag from the White Cliffs of Dover."

STURGEON: EU WON'T GET AWAY WITH IT

NICOLA Sturgeon has said a different future for Scotland is more likely following the Prime Minister's announcement that the UK will leave the European single market.

The First Minister said: "It seems the Westminster Tory Government now think they can do anything to Scotland and get away with it. They must start to understand how wrong they are.

"The UK Government cannot be allowed to take us out of the EU and the single market, regardless of the impact on our economy, jobs, living standards and our reputation as an open, tolerant country, without Scotland having the ability to choose between that and a different future."

Ms Sturgeon added: "With her comments today, the Prime Minister has only succeeded in making that choice more likely."

Ms Sturgeon also called for "serious engagement" on Scotland's proposal to be allowed to remain in the single market even if the rest of the UK leaves.

She said there is no evidence that proposal – or the rest of the Scottish Government's plan on the country's future in Europe – had been considered, adding that must change in "short order".

FLIRTING: Scotty T posted saucy pic of Lisa (above)

GEORDIE Shore* lothario Scotty T has set his sights on fame-hungry Lisa Appleton in what could be the most bizarre showbiz couple yet.

Lisa, 48, has been attempting to revive her reality TV career – and her attempts haven't gone unnoticed by 28-year-old Scott.

Scott took to his Twitter account and shared a recent picture of Lisa taking the bins out in her underwear.

By BECCA STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

He captioned the image 'Get a girl who can do both' and then shared another photo of Lisa wearing a see-through lacy outfit, with no bra on.

Wink

Lisa took the bait and shamelessly flirted with the Newcastle-born hunk, cheekily replying with 'Get a guy who can do both'.

She accompanied the tweet with a wink faced emoji and seemed keen on flirting up a storm with Scott.

Later, Scott continued his chase of Lisa by posting a picture of her on a bed completely nude, just covered by a bath towel.

Alongside the picture, he put an aubergine emoji and water droplets, which often represent a penis and cum.

Former Big Brother contestant Lisa has been snapped in a series of saucy pictures, including eating sausages on the beach in a bra and flashing regularly on nights out.

Self-confessed 'top shagger' Scott claims he's slept with 1,000 women.

Glastonbury? No, it's The Variety Bazaar

GLASTONBURY Festival will be renamed when it moves to a new venue after 2018, Michael Eavis has revealed.

Mr Eavis (above), who launched the event in 1970, declared he was taking "a huge risk" by switching location and name.

The world famous music event is currently called Glastonbury Festival of Contemporary Performing Arts.

But when it moves away from Somerset it will be renamed The Variety Bazaar.

"I've been a risk taker all my life. In 47 years of taking risks, so far touch wood, I haven't come unstuck," said Mr Eavis.

"This might be one risk too far, I don't know."

He said the event will be billed as The Glastonbury Festival team presents The Variety Bazaar.

This year's event will remain centred on Worthy Farm, Pilton, and the festival will not be staged at all next year.

Turks parade nightclub massacre gunman

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

THIS is the man arrested by Turkish authorities on suspicion of being the gunman who attacked an Istanbul nightclub on New Year's Eve, killing 39 people.

Officials claimed he is an Uzbekistan national who trained in Afghanistan and has confessed to the massacre.

Photographs from raids, widely published in the Turkish media, showed a bruised, black-haired man in a bloodied shirt being held by his neck. NTV television said the gunman had resisted arrest.

Turkish media also circulated a photograph of the suspect lying on the floor, hands bound behind his back, with the boot of an unidentified man pressed to the back of his head.

Prime Minister Binali Yildirim told reporters in Ankara that the man was being questioned by police.

He expressed hope that the interrogation would unveil the "forces" behind the attack, which has already been claimed by the Islamic State group.

Hundreds of people were gathered at the Reina nightclub to celebrate the end of 2016 – only to become the first victims of 2017.

The gunman shot a police officer and a civilian outside the club, before storming the club.

Most of the dead in the attack were foreign nationals, mainly from the Middle East.

"The vile terrorist who attacked the place of entertainment on New Year's Eve and led to the loss of so many lives has been captured," Mr Yildirim said.

He added: "What is important is for the suspect to be captured and for the forces behind it to be revealed."

Istanbul governor Vasip Sahin said the suspect is an Uzbekistan national who trained in Afghanistan and is believed to have entered Turkey in January 2016.

Mr Sahin identified him as Abdulkadir Masharipov, saying he was born in 1983, although Turkish media reported the suspect's first name as Abdulgadir.

Mr Sahin said that the man, captured late on Monday, confessed to carrying out the massacre.

VICTIM: Denise Clair waived right to anonymity

SOCCER ACE DID RAPE GIRL WITH TEAM-MATE IN FLAT SAYS JUDGE

RAPIST: Goodwillie in action for Plymouth and at court

AT THE COURTS

Goodwillie and pal must pay her £100k

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

FORMER Scotland striker David Goodwillie and an ex-teammate were ruled to be rapists yesterday and ordered to pay £100,000 damages despite never facing a criminal trial.

Denise Clair, a mother-of-one who waived her right to anonymity and who was left 'devastated' by a Crown decision not to prosecute, sued Goodwillie and his then Dundee United colleague David Robertson, claiming the footballers raped her at a flat in Armadale, west Lothian, after a night out in nearby Bathgate.

Ms Clair said she could not remember what had happened since she was in a Bathgate bar until she woke up in the strange flat the following morning.

The 30-year-old sought £500,000 in compensation, but damages were later agreed at £100,000 in the civil action at the Court of Session in Edinburgh.

Ms Clair maintained that she was incapable of giving free agreement to sex because of her alcohol consumption.

Vulnerable

But Goodwillie, 27, who now plays for Plymouth Argyle, and Robertson, 30, now a midfielder for Cowdenbeath claimed that intercourse had been consensual.

The judge, Lord Armstrong, said: "Having carefully examined and scrutinised the whole evidence in the case, I find the evidence of the pursuer to be cogent, persuasive and compelling.

"In the result, therefore, I find that in the early hours of January 2, 2011, at the flat in Armadale, both defenders took advantage of the pursuer when she was vulnerable through an excessive intake of alcohol and, because her cognitive functioning and decision making processes were so impaired, was incapable of giving meaningful consent; and that they each raped her.'

The judge said he found neither Goodwillie, nor Robertson, to be credible or reliable on the issue of whether they had a reasonable or honest belief that Ms Clair was consenting.

He rejected evidence relied on by the players that Ms Clair was not particularly affected by alcohol and was no more drunk than anyone else in the company they had been in that night.

The judge said of Goodwillie: "The first defender was not an impressive witness. Particularly in relation to his assessment of the pursuer's condition, his evidence was given with a view to his own interests rather than in accordance with the oath which he had taken.

"I did not find his evidence to be persuasive.

"Like the first defender, I assessed the second defender as a witness who was being selective as to what he was prepared to tell the court and whose evidence, directed as it was entirely to his own interests, was partial and partisan.

"He did not present as a witness who was being entirely candid. On the significant issues arising in the case, I did not find his evidence to be credible or reliable."

QUIZZED: Robertson said victim consented to sex

Lord Armstrong said that prior to the incident Ms Clair had enjoyed life, but her life changed following the decision not to proceed with a prosecution.

Destroyed

She was told by Crown Office in July that year that they were not going ahead with criminal proceedings.

Lord Armstrong said: "She found that decision difficult to understand and had felt that she had not been believed.

"She felt that her life had been destroyed by something which had happened although, because of her lack of memory, she was not fully aware of what it was that had caused that effect."

She had experienced suicidal thoughts and it was only last year that she felt comfortable forming an intimate relationship again.

The judge said Ms Clair's memory loss was best explained by 'the phenomenon of alcoholic blackout'.

He said that on the basis of expert evidence, eyewitness testimony and forensic findings of Ms Clair's blood alcohol level, he held that during the period Ms Clair was in the flat she 'lacked the level of cognitive functioning necessary to make reasoned decisions and consequently lacked the ability to give meaningful consent by free agreement'.

It was only in the weeks after the rape that Ms Clair knew with certainty that intercourse had taken place after DNA evidence was obtained from swabs taken from her.

During her evidence, she said that she had found herself naked and in pain after the incident.

She had gone out for a drink with a friend on New Year's Day but had no recollection of leaving a pub for a nightclub in Bathgate.

She remembered waking the next morning in strange surroundings and said: "I seemed to be running about the house in a panic. I ran into every single room to see if I could make sense of my surroundings."

Her counsel, Simon Di Rollo QC, asked her what she was wearing. She replied: "Nothing. I was naked, but I didn't realise that until I was in the kitchen."

She said: "I just felt sore. I felt sore inside as if something had happened to me, but I couldn't say what it was. I felt a lot of pain inside.

"I kind of thought something must have happened to me but I had no idea what. I didn't know where I was."

Ambulance

Ms Clair said she found articles of her clothing in the flat stuffed down the side of a bed.

She added: "My pants were never recovered."

Goodwillie maintained that he did not think Ms Clair was too drunk to consent to sex.

But a security firm employee working at the nightclub told the court that the Ms Clair was in need of an ambulance.

Gayle McGregor said: "She wasn't in control of herself. Her eyes were rolling in her head. She couldn't stand up straight. She couldn't speak to me properly. She wasn't compos mentis."

Ex On The Beach Zahida's handjob for fella in car

EX on the Beach beauty Zahida Allen posted a video of her WANKING off her co-star boyfriend Sean Pratt while he was driving.

The 22-year-old uploaded the sex video to her Instagram feed and described what she was doing to her hunky fella.

MTV's new series of their infamous reality show aired last night and Zahida might be one of the filthiest they've ever had.

She took things to a new level when she decided to film herself giving Sean a cheeky fondle.

They were on their way home from a romantic spa weekend but things took an X-rated turn on their journey home.

Zahida posted the video and said to the camera: "It's time to go home. Give Sean a nice little handjob."

Then the camera turns to Sean, 26, where he is seen grinning and Zahida's hand slides down his joggers.

Sean and Zahida met while filming Ex on the Beach and have been over-sharing details of their relationship ever since.

Viewers will see the couple shag on television throughout the series but they've been letting fans know exactly what they've been getting up to since.

Brunette Zahida has been spotted filming MTV's Geordie Shore and was allegedly involved in a scrap with Chloe Ferry, 22.

But the pair are still together and Sean reckons he shagged Zahida 'anywhere but the beds' during their time in the villa.

Series six of the explosive reality show started last night and airs on MTV every Tuesday at 10pm.

Imogen showed off her slimmed down figure in this skimpy white swimsuit, before revealing more than she bargained for when her nip popped out.

And the busty beauty showed off what looked like a piercing, before adjusting her costume.

STIRRING THINGS UP: Chloe loves to show off her boobs

(ABOUT TIME SOMEONE LIVENED THIS BORING LOT UP...)

By JESS GALLEY
jess@sundaysport.co.uk

IT took less than 24 hours for Geordie Shore star Chloe Ferry to whip out her huge NORKS on Celebrity Big Brother.

The 21-year-old reality star entered the house on Friday night with fellow latecomers Jessica Cunningham, from this year's The Apprentice, and Kim Woodburn.

Chloe wasted no time in injecting some life at last into the show, getting up to her usual antics as she stripped off and flashed her bare boobs to her fellow housemates.

The Newcastle lass is best known for stripping off and shagging on-screen on the MTV reality series and she stayed true to form after entering the Channel 5 house.

On her first night Chloe offered to 'flash her fanny' to her stunned co-stars before boasting she NEVER goes out wearing knickers.

However How Clean is Your House? killjoy Kim, 74, described Chloe as 'vulgar' and said: "She has absolutely no respect for property, for people, for noise, what she does, I find her a vulgar, nasty little girl.

"The way she talks, the whole thing about her, 'Oh I don't wear knickers, I don't bath', that's just inappropriate, isn't it?"

Later, during a dip in the hot tub with Calum Best and Jamie O'Hara, Chloe asked the lads whether they'd 'had a wank in here?'

Jamie looked red-faced and said 'no', while Calum joked that he would have to take a Viagra before bed to get the blood flowing now that he's getting older.

But between showing off her assets, Chloe has still managed to ruffle a few feathers.

She also had a spat with Jessica, her closest pal in the house, after the pair revealed they both fancied ladies' man Calum.

Chloe ranted in the diary room: "She thinks she's a fking Kardashian!"

Thrones star Maisie: Am I going to die?

GAME Of Thrones babe Maisie Williams says the show's cast are in the dark about what's coming up in the next series – including whether they will all be killed off!

The actress, who plays Arya Stark in the fantasy series, said: "I don't know anything. I make educated guesses and we try and get information from the writers but they keep it close to their chest."

Speaking to Nick Grimshaw on Radio 1 yesterday, she added: "We go for drinks and talk about the show, but you have to be careful what you say because you don't know who is listening."

After filming the show's seventh series, she said she's "excited" for another but has been left wondering: "Am I going to die?"

Maisie, 19, said she still finds the prospect of appearing on the red carpet "scary", adding: "I get so nervous in the car on the way there."

Thankfully she had support on her most recent red carpet visit with Game Of Thrones co-star and close pal Sophie Turner.

She revealed: "We are very close. Red carpets are kind of scary, but when you've got your bestie with you, it's the best thing ever."

Singer reckons entire planet hates Britain

'OUT OF TOUCH WITH REALITY': Singer Lily Allen

By COLIN HURST news@sundaysport.co.uk

POP babe Lily Allen claims the entire world hates Britain over its slave history.

The 31-year-old songstress made the claims in a tweet, saying: "A global Britain could be good but the world still hates us because of SLAVERY."

She was responding yesterday to Prime Minister Theresa May outlining her plans for the country after Brexit.

But her comments caused outrage because, as many Twitter users pointed out, it was actually Britain who helped stamp out the slave trade throughout the world.

One Twitter user said: "I think you hate us."

David Shipley wrote: "The world hates Britain for ending the slave trade? Hrm."

And Gersace posted: "Silly Lily at it again! Privileged and out of touch with reality!"

David Fisher also tweeted: "She's completely mad. We were first country in the world to abolish slavery."

And another user added: "Read a history book, or the bible. Slavery is a historical human problem, not a British invention."

It's not the first time the singer has caused controversy for her views.

Attacks

Fans were furious last year when she "apologised on behalf of Britain" during a trip to the migrant camp in Calais, France.

She also claimed on Twitter that the only attacks she had experienced were by white men.

She made the remark during an exchange with ex-English Defence League boss Tommy Robinson on migration and Asian grooming gangs.

Jamiroquai fans' new album teaser

FUNK band Jamiroquai have teased a sample of their first album in seven years as they announced a string of festival dates.

They will perform their first headline dates in more than six years at European summer events.

Formed in 1992, the band – fronted by Jay Kay (above) – have sold more than 26 million albums globally, with their last one Rock Dust Light Star reaching number seven in the UK album charts.

WE totally agree with jugtastic Joey Fisher – who says her jaw-dropping NORKS are her best feature.

The 24-year-old glamour girl said her boobs are her favourite part of her body.

And, not surprisingly, blokes can't keep their eyes off them either!

Welsh beauty Joey, from Cardiff, told the Midweek Sport she's always the centre of attention on nights out thanks to her incredible 32H 'babies'.

Spell

She confessed: "It has to be my boobs. They're my babies – I love them!

"Having big boobs is great because you fill out clothes so well, and I'm always being complimented on them.

"You can imagine how much attention I get, especially from guys.

"On nights out they're drawn to them, like my boobs have put them under a spell – it's hilarious really!"

VICAR 'SPIED ON MEN IN LOO FOR SEX KICKS'

DENIAL: Martin Thrower at court

He admits filming them, court told

By SAM RUSSELL news@sundaysport.co.uk

A CLERGYMAN has denied filming men in public loos for his own sexual gratification.

The Very Rev Martin Thrower pleaded not guilty to two charges of voyeurism when he appeared in court yesterday.

The 55-year-old is accused of recording a private act on August 4 last year with the intention of viewing footage for his own sexual gratification, and of recording another person on or before August 4 for the same reason.

Suspended

Mr Thrower, of Hadleigh, Suffolk, is rector of Hadleigh, Layham and Shelley.

Simon Gladwell, defending, said Mr Thrower admitted filming but denied being motivated by sexual gratification.

Mr Gladwell told Norwich Crown Court: "I don't think he knows quite what it was.

The court heard a psychiatric report had been commissioned.

An earlier hearing at Ipswich Magistrates' Court was told the incidents happened in public toilets at the Buttermarket Shopping Centre in Ipswich.

Mr Thrower was arrested in Ipswich in August and formally charged in November after an investigation.

He was bailed to appear at Norwich Crown Court for trial on June 14.

As part of his bail conditions he must have no unsupervised contact with people under the age of 18.

Mr Thrower was suspended from all his roles by the Diocese of St Edmundsbury following his arrest.

Flight MH370 search is over

THE search for Malaysia Airlines Flight 370 – and the 239 people on board – has ended after the countries involved in the expensive and vast deep-sea hunt decided not to carry on the 34-month hunt.

Late last year, as ships with high-tech equipment covered the last strips of the 46,000-square mile search zone, experts concluded they should have been searching a smaller area immediately to the north.

However, by then, £130million had already been spent by Malaysia, Australia and China – who had agreed over the summer not to search elsewhere without pinpoint evidence.

TABOO TOM: I'M JAMES BANNED!

THE NAMES... IN THE FRAME: How Tom would look as Bond and (below) in Taboo.

Why he WON'T say he's the next 007

By JESS GALLEY jess@sundaysport.co.uk

TABOO actor Tom Hardy has confirmed he would love to be the next James Bond.

The 39-year-old star hinted that he'd happily step into Daniel Craig's shoes when he finally gives up the role of 007.

But Tom refused to comment on whether or not he'd ever been approached for the job as he said it might jinx his chances.

Impressive

He said: "There's a saying amongst us in the fraternity of acting that if you talk about it you're automatically out of the race.

"So I can't possibly comment on that one! If I mention it, it's gone.

"Because Daniel Craig is so good, and what Sam Mendes and Barbara Broccoli have done has been so impressive, that it would be a very hard re-imagination to follow."

Craig took over from Pierce Brosnan as the MI6 agent in 2006 and has starred in four films.

It is still unclear whether he will star in a fifth as he previously said he would "rather slash his wrists" than make another film – before later describing playing the character as the "best job in the world".

At the time, the film's executive producer said: "Craig is absolutely the first choice. I know they're hoping for him to come back."

Mad Max Tom star isn't the only name to have been tossed in the ring, as Luther's Idris Elba and The Night Manager's Tom Hiddleston are also being touted as possible replacements for Craig.

MAN INJURED IN HOMES BLAST ARRESTED

A MAN recovering in hospital after a blast destroyed two houses has been arrested on suspicion of causing an explosion, police said.

The 33-year-old was injured, with another man who is critical in hospital, after the explosion ripped through two terraced houses in Blackley, North Manchester, at around 12.30pm on Monday.

The blast destroyed both homes and damaged neighbouring houses.

Three others were treated at the scene for minor injuries.

One man remains critical in hospital while the 33-year-old under arrest is described as stable.

The cause of the blast is still under investigation.

A Greater Manchester Police spokesman said: "This was a devastating incident which has left two people in hospital with serious injuries and destroyed part of a street.

"Progress is being made as we continue to investigate the cause of the explosion, but given the problematic working conditions, it may be several days before we will be able to return the street to normality."

BBC feared Hugh would get shot

BEEB bosses feared that Hugh Laurie might be SHOT during filming for The Night Manager.

The 57-year-old House actor (above) said BBC lawyers refused to let him contact real-life arms dealers to research his role.

Hugh said the show's execs were worried that he might be sued – or even killed – if he tried to base his character Richard Roper on real dealers.

He said: "The peculiar thing from my point of view was that I was legally prevented from researching those characters.

"I identified a couple of candidates upon whom I could base the character and I was told that under no circumstances could I talk to them because that would give them license to claim that I had introduced their name in public and they would sue.

"And suing would be the best I could hope for – they might send the boys round."

Hugh won a Golden Globe for his role, while his co-stars Olivia Colman and Tom Hiddleston also won awards.

Naked police chase woman hits 100mph

POLICE officers were led on a high-speed chase by a NAKED female driver.

The 48-year-old lady was completely starkers behind the wheel as she reached speeds of more than 100mph during the 25-mile pursuit.

After she failed to stop on Michigan's Interstate 75, cops forced her car off the road.

It came to a halt in a ditch after she smashed into a utility pole.

State police said the woman was unharmed in the collision and no other vehicles were involved.

A police spokesman said: "We're not sure if this is a drug-related incident or a medical condition."

The driver, who lives 700 miles away in Georgia, was taken to hospital for observation.

Builders told to cover up bums over cancer risk

WORKERS exposed to the elements account for 2 percent of cases of the most deadly form of skin cancer.

Exposure to harmful ultraviolet rays from the sun while at work leads to one death and five new cases of malignant melanoma every week, a new study claims.

Construction workers are most at risk of malignant melanoma followed by those who work in agriculture.

Police, the Armed Forces and other public administration workers are also susceptible, according to the study published in the British Journal of Cancer.

Researchers estimate there are 48 deaths and 241 cases of melanoma skin cancer each year in Britain caused by people being exposed to the sun while working.

Dr Lesley Rushton, lead researcher from Imperial College London, said: "This research shows that you don't have to work in the Mediterranean or a traditionally sunny country for the sun to damage your skin."

ABBEY CLANCY'S HOTTEST PICS EVER

By BECCA STUBBS becca@sundaysport.co.uk

MODEL Abbey Clancy celebrated her 31st birthday last week... and to celebrate we found her HOTTEST ever pictures.

The footballer's wife has some seriously smoking pictures – and we've dug through the archives to bring you the sexy snapshots.

Saucy

In the raunchy images, Abbey is pictured showing off plenty of saucy sideboob at an exclusive fashion party back in 2012.

We also uncovered racy pictures of the stunna dressed in some extremely revealing lingerie, leaving little to the imagination.

She's seen striking up a number of poses in the kinky set and her boobs are barely covered in her lacy sheer bra.

Her nipples have made appearances – one broke free from her flimsy white dress in April 2009 when she was snapped leaving an awards ceremony.

Abbey shot to fame in 2006 when she was runner-up in Season 2 of Britain's Next Top Model.

She is married to Stoke City striker Peter Crouch, 35, and still stuns with sexy selfies and raunchy shoots.

Cops scale down chef's suspected murder probe

A PROBE into the disappearance and suspected murder of chef Claudia Lawrence has been scaled down.

Miss Lawrence (above) was last seen on March 18 2009 and was reported missing the following day after she failed to turn up for a shift at work at the University of York.

Police believe the 35-year-old was murdered, although no body has ever been discovered.

North Yorkshire Police said a "proactive review and, in some areas, a reinvestigation" of the case was nearly finished.

They added that unless one line of inquiry relating to DNA profiling provided a breakthrough, the £1million review "will start to scale down next month".

Assistant Chief Constable Paul Kennedy said: "It is not for the want of trying that a breakthrough has not yet come, but rather the result of the continuing refusal of those who know what happened to Claudia to come forward and tell us the truth."

Notting Hill now a 'Hillsborough' risk

NOTTING Hill Carnival risks mirroring a "Hillsborough-scale tragedy" unless overcrowding and crime issues are tackled, police have warned.

A report published by the London Assembly Police and Crime Committee states the annual event has reached a "tipping point" and needs to be re-examined to ensure it remains safe.

With one million visitors packing streets during the west London event, one of the main risks is overcrowding.

Metropolitan Police Commander Dave Musker set out his concerns to the Police and Crime Committee in November, when he warned of the risk of "Hillsborough-scale tragedy".

The report concluded it "would be foolish to ignore" such comments.

MAN KILLS LOVER'S COUSIN... THEN SHAGS CORPSE!

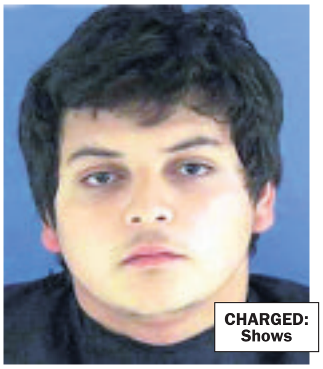
MURDERED: Amanda Suarez

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A MAN killed his girlfriend's cousin and then shagged her corpse, because he "wanted to know what it was like to kill somebody."

Police said Christopher Shows, 21, murdered mum-of-four Amanda Suarez at her home, after she had rejected his advances.

Sheriff Noel Stephen revealed: "In his confession, it was just he wanted to know what murder was about."



CHARGED: Shows

Crucifix

Cops also confirmed that during the attack on December 7 last year the victim's two-year-old son was at home.

Reports said Shows had gone to the woman's apartment in Okeechobee, Florida, where he made advances to her.

When she rejected them, he took a rifle from his vehicle and allegedly shot her in the back.

He is then said to have dragged her body into the kitchen, positioned her in the form of a crucifix, and sexually assaulted her.

When police arrived at the scene, they found that Ms Suarez's phone was missing.

It was tracked to a nearby church, where the device was found covered with blood. Cops said it contained a photograph moments before Ms Suarez was shot dead.

Shows faces charges of first-degree murder, armed burglary of an occupied residence with a battery, desecration of a body, attempted sexual battery, grand theft from a residence, and tampering with evidence.

Robot's blow to bagpipers

A SCIENTIST has created a robot that can play the bagpipes – non-stop!

John Dingley created Ardu McDuino using a powerful computer brain and 3D-printed plastic fingers, normally used as prosthetics for amputees in developing countries.

A pump blows air through the pipe to create a noise while the PC controls the hands to produce musical notes.

This means the robot can carry on playing without taking a breath, unlike a normal human bagpiper player.

A pal of the British inventor said: "This is really impressive stuff. It's totally pointless of course, but impressive.

"If you had a robot playing the bagpipes 24/7 in your house you'd most probably go insane.

"But what the hell – it's still good fun."

Teen: Rolf groped me on taxi ride

A TEENAGER who claims she was groped by Rolf Harris in the back of a taxi fought back tears as she told a court of her "humiliation".

The alleged victim told Southwark Crown Court the entertainer had touched her breast twice and later forced his hand in between her closed legs leaving her feeling "very sick".

Asked why she had included details in court that had not been in her police statement she said: "It's not the sort of detail you tell to men you have never met before.

"I am trying to tell the truth now.

"It was humiliating and it is humiliating to tell it in public."

When asked if she had exaggerated in her mind the story she told the jury, the alleged victim replied: "No I haven't, I remember it very well.

"He's not the only man ever to have had a go, but it was the worst because of his celebrity status."

Harris has pleaded not guilty to seven fresh counts of indecent assault and one alternative charge of sexual assault.

The trial continues.

Strip club row girl mows down lover

A FURIOUS girlfriend ran her boyfriend over – TWICE – after she caught him ogling naked female dancers at a strip club.

Amara Stockard, 24, is now facing charges of attempted first-degree murder, aggravated battery and driving under the influence.

Cops arrested Stockard after finding her crying over her fella while he lay in the road unconscious.

She had hit him so hard that there were remnants of the man's shirt stuck in her car's grille.

The victim was sent to hospital with two skull fractures and was put into a medically-induced coma.

Deputies in Palm Beach, Florida, said while they interviewed Stockard, she appeared intoxicated and she has been sent to Brevard County Jail.

Bradford-born Amber opened up about her ultimate sex fantasy – as well as baring her 32DDs – which is to romp in front of a roaring log fire.

Rug

She said: "I tend to stay in a lot more during winter, and if it's with a good-looking man, then that's even better!

"Every girl dreams of an open log fire, fur rug and a handsome man to cuddle up to when it's freezing cold outside.

"I'd love to visit a log cabin in the middle of nowhere with a guy, when there's only each other to keep ourselves entertained.

"I want to have sex outside this winter, too!"

'Damaged' easyJet flight diverted

AN easyJet flight from London to Spain was diverted over fears the aircraft was damaged, according to reports.

Aviation website AIRLIVE.net said the Airbus A320 jet landed in Malaga rather than Almeria due to "possible damage from severe turbulence".

An easyJet spokeswoman confirmed the EZY5163 flight from London Gatwick was diverted because of "a technical issue", adding: "The aircraft landed routinely and did not declare an emergency or request an expedited landing. Engineers attended the aircraft and it has now continued to Almeria."

Emily banned from having sex in Parliament

PRUDISH MPs banned the filming of SEX SCENES in the Houses of Parliament.

Emily Watson, star of new BBC drama Apple Tree Yard, revealed the show was denied permission to film saucy romp scenes beneath the House of Commons.

The series is based on the psychological thriller by Louise Doughty which follows the love affair between a successful geneticist and a stranger she meets at the Houses of Parliament.

In the book the main characters, Yvonne and Mark, shag pretty much anywhere – including a 'secluded chapel' beneath the Commons.

Emily (above) said: "We were banished.

"Because as it turns out, you can blow up James Bond on Westminster Bridge but not sex, please!"

But you won't be catching any glimpses of Emily's bare boobs or mimsy, as she refused to strip off for the part.

Emily, 50, said: "I told them if I do this, I'm not doing any nudity. Absolutely not."

Teen tried to cut off foreskin with machete

A TEENAGER was rushed to hospital after attempting to CIRCUMCISE his own penis using a MACHETE.

The unnamed teen tried to carry out the procedure after his friends mocked him and said he would never get a girlfriend.

He tried to remove his own foreskin using the nearest sharp object he could find in Zimbabwe's Lupane District.

Dr Nyasha Masuka said: "It seems the other boys were laughing at him for not being circumcised.

"So he used a machete to circumcise himself and he injured himself in the process.

"He was rushed to St Lukes Hospital, where the health staff circumcised him."

The unidentified lad was kept in hospital for two days while he received treatment for the botched job.

COUPLE CAUGHT HAVING SEX IN A BURGER KING

BONKER KING: Sex was on menu

A COUPLE were caught having a steamy sex romp in a branch of BURGER KING.

The drunk pair were said to have been getting intimate in the toilets of a branch of the fast food restaurant in Manchester.

Stunned staff at the Burger King in Piccadilly Gardens immediately called cops, who arrived at around 7pm.

By ANNE COATES
news@sundaysport.co.uk

The man and woman were said to be drunk and refusing to leave the premises.

Bald

However, the pair had made off by the time police arrived.

The man was white, aged 40 to 45, bald, wearing a green jacket and jeans.

The woman was white, also aged 40 to 45, wearing a black jacket and grey or white trousers.

On Twitter, the Greater Manchester Police City Centre account said: "Report of a couple having sex in the toilet of Burger King, couple got off prior to police arriving."

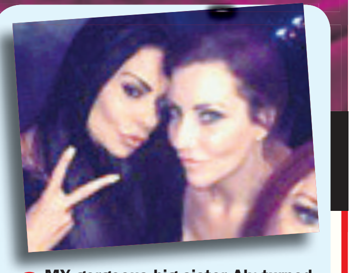
SHE'S BRITAIN'S ONLY TOPLESS COLUMNIST

IF any of you were wondering why I wasn't on Studio 66 TV last week it was because I got snowed in! I live at the top of a hill and got so much snow, my neighbours built a snowman! I tried my best to get there but it was so bad I couldn't even get my car off the drive. Don't worry though, I'll be back on screen tomorrow night and plan to make up for lost time! Tune in to see me in action from 10pm on Sky channel 912 and from midnight on Freeview channel 185.

OH my God – if you haven't watched Netflix's series The OA you need to plant yourself on the sofa and binge-watch the whole series. It is absolutely amazing and I've got my family hooked on it now, too! I heard there's going to be more series in the future, so I can't wait to see what they come up with next.



MY gorgeous big sister Aly turned 43 last week so we had a girl's night out to celebrate! We all got dolled up and went to a local café which turns into a wine bar at night.

We got a bit tipsy and danced the night away to some 80s classics.

It was so nice to get dressed up and go out for a big night out after working so hard since Christmas!

Katie pays the Price!

GOLDEN DAYS: Katie as model

I SAW photos that Katie Price posted on Instagram over the weekend showing off her new calendar and of her early days as a glamour girl when she was just 18.

How obvious could she make it that she is missing her days as a topless model?!

If you ask me, I think Katie is actually starting to regret her decision to take the commercial route into TV and magazine spreads – deep down I think she loved the other side of the industry.

It is who she was for such a long time, and maybe she's pining to give it another go after trying her hand at the likes of Loose Women and being a country housewife.

And I really don't blame her – I absolutely love my job and will be getting my kit off and performing on webcam for as long as I can.

My career makes me who I am and it makes me feel glamorous, sexy and very confident.

If people want rid of me they will have to force me out!

Chloe is such good value

GREAT TV: Chloe Ferry

CELEBRITY Big Brother is back to its best this series and I'm enjoying the mix of people they've got in the house.

I've never realised it before, but Jamie O'Hara is bloody fit isn't he?!

And I reckon that he is coming across really well, considering he's never done any other reality TV shows before.

Dull

Although I am glad they decided to shake things up by adding in some new housemates on Friday as it was starting to get a bit dull.

The casting directors at Channel 5 must be feeling very proud of themselves for choosing three great new celebs to join the house.

Whether people like her or not, Chloe from Geordie Shore is absolute TV gold and she has already proven that by flashing her tits on her first night in the house.

She has already ruffled plenty of feathers, and I feel like she's only just getting started!

Kim Woodburn seems like she'll be a good housemate, too, as she isn't scared of a bit of confrontation – she's my type of woman!

And, even though I had no idea who she was, Jessica Cunningham seems like a nice girl, too.

I COULDN'T write this week's column without mentioning the elephant in the room. Donald Trump is about to be sworn in as the next President of the United States. What an absolutely terrifying thought!

I still can't really believe it, to be honest. But, I'm a huge believer in giving people chances and we can only hope that, with a good team around him, Trump makes the right decisions.

America, like the UK, could really do with a change of pace, so maybe The Donald is the right man for the job after all. I guess only time will tell!

LESBIAN DANCE TEACHER'S SEX WITH GIRL, 15

Stepfather catches them romping in bed

ARRESTED: Debenedetta

By WENDY THOMAS news@sundaysport.co.uk

A FEMALE dance teacher has been accused of having sex with a 15-year-old girl student after the teen's stepfather walked in on the two of them in bed together.

He was checking up on his stepdaughter, who was meant to be off school ill, when he found Lauren Debenedetta, 38, allegedly bedding the girl.

The stepdad then told cops in North Port, Florida, of the under-age affair, it has been reported.

Now Debenedetta, who worked at Haven Dance Studio, has been arrested on suspicion of molesting the young girl.

Lewd

Charlotte County Sheriff's Office said the teacher is facing two counts of lewd and lascivious battery after being accused of performing sexual acts on the girl.

According to cops, Debenedetta told the girl's stepdad to shut the door when he found them in bed together.

Initially, the teenager denied the affair – but later admitted engaging in sexual activity with Debenedetta during interviews.

The stepfather then called the girl's mother to tell her about the alleged incident.

Court documents show Debenedetta had contacted the student on the day she was home sick and asked if she could come over.

The pair allegedly kissed and engaged in sexual activity together, the documents revealed.

Haven Dance Studio has been shut following Debenedetta's arrest.

Friday 13th giant spider spooks staff

A GIANT Huntsman spider from Japan was found by terrified workers who opened a shipping container here in the UK.

It scuttled out when staff at a storage firm in Stowmarket, Suffolk, opened the container to unload it on Friday, January 13.

RSPCA officer Naemi Kilbey, who was called to collect the stowaway, said: "Workers who found the spider thought it was a Friday the 13th jinx.

"I must admit I'd get a bit of a shock if I was unloading some stock and a huge Huntsman spider crawled out!"

Huntsman spiders, usually from Australia, can grow to more than 6in (15cm) in size but are generally harmless.

While a bite from a Huntsman could cause humans some pain and discomfort, they are not a highly venomous species.

The spider was confined in the container by the workers, collected by the RSPCA and taken to a local exotic animal specialist who will look after it.

Shop lifter's trouser snake

A DARING thief nicked a python by walking out of a pet shop with it sticking it down his trouser leg.

The suspect was seen on camera stealing the black pastel bull python, worth £160, from the store in Portland, US.

And the shop's owner, Christin Bjugan, said she spent most of the next day viewing CCTV to find out what had happened.

She said: "There are cameras everywhere and you would think that people would see them but you see him put it in his pants – yuck!

"Then he can be seen shuffling awkwardly out of the shop – trying to act like there's not a snake in his pants."

Although the snake is not venomous, Ms Bjugan said the brazen thief was lucky "it wasn't feeding day" when it gets "very hungry".

ANDY GETS HIS KICKS FROM YOGA SEX WITH ME!

TEACHER: Yoga fan Billi says her fella Andy can get into some positions!

TOWIE babe Billi Mucklow says her West Ham lover Andy Carroll has TANTRIC YOGA to thank for his match winning goal at the weekend.

The former reality star, 29, said the pair's steamy sessions are the reason behind Carroll's acrobatic goal against Crystal Palace on Saturday.

Billi, who has been dating Andy for three years, runs a Bikram Yoga studio in Essex and gives her footie fella private lessons to improve his flexibility.

And she teased that her fiancée can bend himself into some very compromising positions.

She said: "Looks like the Yoga's Working. Very Proud.

"He's actually quite good. He's just so strong. The flexibility is surprising, given how strong he is.

"He's able to get into some positions. I'm a good teacher."

Billi shot to fame on ITVBe series The Only Way is Essex, after joining the cast in series three, but left the show to launch her yoga studio in 2013.

The celeb couple got engaged in November 2014 and have a child together.

What makes anyone want to go without SEX?

Carrie Rooney

Age 22, 34C-24-34, from Birmingham

By BECCA STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

SEX-STARVED Brits are snubbing saucy romps with partners, according to a new survey.

The One Poll survey for ITV's This Morning show revealed we have a number of excuses for not having regular bonks.

One in 10 even admitted they prefer SLEEPING to shagging once they climb between the sheets with their partner.

Shockingly, one in eight confessed to not having romped for more than a YEAR.

But instead of being sexually frustrated by the lack of bedroom action, those who'd gone without a shag for a year insisted they were happy.

Tiredness was a common excuse for not getting down and dirty, and the results even revealed that some folk would turn to someone other than their partners for sex.

Nearly a quarter of folk said they would consider a saucy fling – and one in 10 admitted they'd already cheated.

Despite the high number of sex-starved Brits, there were plenty among those quizzed who still enjoyed regular romps.

Horny

Almost half of all people who were surveyed said they'd had a shagging session in the past week, and a third said they had sex every week.

London was named a horny hotbed, with more people shagging there than anywhere else in the UK.

The East Midlands was the least passionate place, with 13% of those living there saying they NEVER get any action.

Sport stunna Carrie Rooney, 22, from Birmingham, told us exactly what she thought of the results.

Carrie, who boasts 34C boobs, said: "Everyone has an excuse ready for when they just can't be bothered to bonk – but they shouldn't!

"Sex is amazing and, if you're doing it right and getting shagged right, you'll never have any excuses.

"My fella likes to have it every night and sometimes even tries to go again.

"That's because I know what I'm doing and our sex is insane.

"If you can't be bothered to have sex or haven't had sex in a year, learn some bedroom skills and get out and pull.

"Or if that fails, grab a toy!"

‘I’d love to wake up man’s head between

By HAZEL GROVE

news@sundaysport.co.uk

EVER wished women came with a manual? Well, sexy Siobhan Murray has spelled out exactly how to get her engine revving.

The 34D beauty has revealed exactly what turns her on in an exclusive chat with the Midweek Sport... and it’s pretty saucy!

The 25-year-old former gymnast – who can do the SPLITS – ’fesses she loves ORAL, PUBLIC SEX and THREESOMES.

Siobhan, from Bury, Greater Manchester, said: “I love morning sex! My ultimate fantasy would be waking up to a naked man’s head between your legs... yum!

“Then you’re smiling for the rest of the day.

“I like giving oral sex too, as I want to hear my man really enjoying himself. A 69er is the best of both worlds.

Naughty

“And I quite like having sex outside.

“Doing it in the bedroom is fine, but you get a real rush of excitement having a quickie in the great outdoors.

“Public sex feels so naughty!

“I like sex toys to warm me up, but then the real thing to finish off.

“If I’m being honest, I’m actually bored of my current sex toy as I’ve probably used it too much.

“I need to invest in a new one – so if anyone’s got any recommendations, I’m all ears.

“I’d also love to have sex with two other girls in the future – now that would DEFINITELY please any bloke!

“I’ve never had a threesome, but I’m really open to the idea and it’s something I’d consider after a few drinks.”

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Ashleigh,

CHRISTMAS is always an expensive do and me and the missus are usually skint as arseholes in January.

So we decided this year to try and make some extra cash and save it so we'd not be in the same situation in 12 months' time.

My wife came up with the idea of making some extra dosh by tossing off blokes on the estate where we live.

She charges £5 a time and business was booming from the start. At first, it turned me on a bit, but now I don't want her to do it – especially as she's started shagging some of them for a tenner.

Last week I watched as she had three local lads all at the same time – one in each hole and one in her gob.

She reckons we need as much money as possible and wants to carry on fking and wanking off strangers.

What should I do?

GD, Stockton-on-Tees

Ashleigh says…

WHY not check your savings in June and see if you can afford her to stop.

Dear Ashleigh,

I WAS working late at the office the other day when this really fit fella came in.

We got chatting and one thing led to another and we ended up back at my flat.

I dropped to my knees and he started to face-fk me, driving his long, hard cock down my throat and slapping my chin with his massive bollocks until he climaxed all over my face and in my mouth.

I sucked his Johnson clean and wiped myself down before he then pinned me to the bed and spread my legs, sticking his fingers in my pussy.

I came quickly and then he turned me over and stuck his erect shaft up my arsehole.

The trouble is, we're both seeing other people.

Should I resist the urge to shag him again?

SF, Falkirk

Ashleigh says…

NO, I don't really think so – but dump the others first.

Canal girl loves to play with my fishing tackle

Dear Ashleigh,

YOU may not think that fishing is a particularly sexy hobby, but you'd be dead wrong.

I'm 45 and was divorced a few years back by a woman who said I was a boring old sod, who was clearly more interested in angling than in her.

I must admit to being a keen fisherman and I like nothing better than staying out all night on the riverbank.

The place where I go is quite well-known and there have been some huge fish caught there.

Last month a woman appeared at my side and started to watch me fish.

She said that for some reason the sight of a man with a mighty rod in his hand got her going.

I didn't want her to disturb the fish but I took out my tool and let her play with it for a bit, in the hope that she would eventually fk off.

But she keeps coming back and has begged me to shag her.

What should I do?

CS, Exeter

Ashleigh says…

YOUR missus was right – you are a boring old sod.

Get your tackle out and give this woman a good shag. You don't know what you're missing!

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week ASHLEIGH GEE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you…

I can't resist sex on tap with ex-missus

Dear Ashleigh,

ME and my girlfriend split up a while ago after several years together.

But we still remain on very good terms.

So good, in fact, that we still meet up once-a-week and have a really good shagging session together.

It has all worked out brilliantly – I was totally straight with her and told her I needed my own space, and that things couldn't carry on the way they were.

But now the shit has hit the fan after I went out to a club and this fit bird was coming on to me and giving me the eye.

It was pretty obvious that she wanted me so I went over and we hit it off straight away.

After a couple of drinks we jumped in a taxi to head home and as soon as we got in the cab she reached over and put her hand down the front of my trousers.

Thrust

She was playing with my stiff cock while we snogged on and it was pretty clear what was going to happen when we got home.

By the time we reached my flat I had almost shot a load into my jeans, so I got her in the kitchen, bent her over the sink and thrust my tongue deep into her soaking wet minge.

She begged for my dick in her mouth so we got on the floor, and into the 69 position.

All my hard work on her fanny paid off and soon she was screaming the place down as she orgasmed.

As she did so, she dug her nails into my back and clawed them all the way down to my arse.

It was an amazing night but it was all ruined when I next had sex with my ex, at her flat on the other side of town.

She saw the nail marks on my back and demanded a full explanation.

And she said she won't sleep with me again unless I give her a satisfactory answer. But we're no longer in a relationship – we're both free agents in my mind, and I made that perfectly clear to her.

I feel I don't have to give her any excuses for my sex injuries.

But I am missing our regular hook-ups – what do you think I should do?

BT, Doncaster

Ashleigh says…

IT seems to me that you're a greedy ct and that you want to have your cake and eat it, too.

If you're not prepared to commit to your ex, then you should stop bedding her and let her get on with her life.

If you don't like the thought of that, then maybe it's her that you still really want to be with and you just need to spice up your sex life a bit.

Tell her the things that you like doing and make it her that's digging her nails into your arse next time she climaxes.

I honestly think it's time to man the fk up and make a decision.

AGONY QUICKIES

Dear Ashleigh,

MY new girlfriend insists that she's allergic to my man juice so I have to pull on a condom each time we have sex.

I much prefer to go bareback and I think she might just be saying this so that I use protection.

Is there any way I can test her theory without sticking my meat into her without a johnny on, and hoping she doesn't swell up an cut off the blood supply to my knob?

JC, north London

Ashleigh says…

DO you want sex or not? You blokes whinge when you can't get it, then you moan when you do!

Dear Ashleigh,

I TRIED to spice up my love life with the missus and bought her a some rubber fetish wear.

Now she's turned into a sex monster and says I can't satisfy her needs.

She goes out in the kinky gear and doesn't come home until late.

What should I do?

WR, Liverpool

Ashleigh says…

YOU'LL have to join her on her nights out!

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to the interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

ELLA McPARTLAND

NOTHING gets Mick Portland as excited as a topless picture of Ella McParland and he wanted a photo of the stunna to get him through his January blues.

The 34-year-old IT specialist said his long office days need an added sparkle this month and requested a naughty shot of the 25-year-old babe.

Sexy scouser Ella is the perfect cure to a miserable January and she'll perk Mick and his mates right up.

He said: "Ella's norks put a smile on all the lads' faces. For a bunch of IT geeks, we certainly appreciate a good set of knockers and Ella's are a cracking pair."

HANNAH CLAYDON

MEGA-BOOBED Hannah Claydon certainly gets Paul Summers hot and bothered.

Handyman Paul, 48, reckons 30-year-old Hannah's sweater-stretchers are some of the best in the business and he'd love to cop a feel of her 28H boobs.

Paul, from Wakefield said: "Hannah is from the same neck of the woods from me, she's a Wakefield bird and she's got to be one of the sexiest women alive.

"That rack is sensational, I'm regularly fixing things up as a handyman but my dream job would have my hands wandering all over her chest!"

ELECTRA MORGAN

STUNNING Electra Morgan lights up Tom Walker's life with her whopping chest.

But regular Sport reader Tom, 42, said he's not seen many pictures of his favourite glamour girl recently.

The self-employed gardener from Macclesfield requested a filthy picture of Middlesbrough-born beauty, Electra, 25.

Hopefully, Tom, you'll enjoy this nearly-naked photo of the blonde bombshell – her 32F breasts look incredible in this saucy shot.

Haven't seen your favourite model for a while?
Drop us a note and we'll put her in the paper!

Doggy-style is still Britain’s favourite sex position

Brea Bennett says...

‘GOD yeah, doggy-style is definitely the best position! For me, it reaches the G-spot every time, compared to boring old missionary.’

Jess Angel says...

‘PERSONALLY, I like to mix it up in the bedroom, rather than doing the same old position over and over again.

“My go-to positions are usually reverse cowgirl, doggy and 69 if I feel particularly frisky!’

By JESS GALLEY
jess@sundaysport.co.uk

DOGGY-STYLE has been crowned the UK’s favourite sex position for yet another year running.

A new study has revealed that the majority of Brits love to bonk from behind, beating off the likes of missionary and cowgirl.

More than 35 per cent of people named doggy as their go-to sex position, while missionary came in second with 22.5% and girl on top bagged 19.4% of the vote.

The survey, carried out by online medical site DrEd, quizzed 2,000 men and women about their antics between the sheets.

An expert source told us: “People are experimenting between the sheets way more these days, but one thing that has never changed is the popularity of doggy-style.

“The position is great for both men and women as it allows deeper penetration and provides men with a great view of their lover’s rear.

“So these results weren’t at all surprising.”

Kinkier

Outside the top three, things got a bit kinkier – with 4.3% opting for 69, followed by 1.2% who admitted to being fans of anal sex.

And just over one per cent of people listed table top as the position that never fails to hit the spot.

Not surprisingly, next to no women ranked anal sex as something they’re eager to do, saying they prefer missionary over hopping on top to ride cowgirl.

But fellas said they would prefer to lie back and let their lover do the work.

The survey also asked people which sexual positions they most want to try in 2017 – with table top coming out on top (19.9%).

And surprisingly, more than one in 10 said they would like this year to be the ‘year of anal’ – although most of those were men.

Mandy Watson says...

‘I DON’T really see what all the fuss is about trying ‘table top’, it’s basically just sitting on a table at the end of the day!

However, I was quite surprised by how few people said they preferred anal – I just thought it was one of those things that no one really talks about, but we all secretly enjoy!’

SPEARMINT RHINO
GENTLEMEN'S CLUBS

SPEARMINT RHINO BABE OF THE WEEK

Sara REYNOLDS

STUNNING Sara Reynolds loves taking her kit off for saucy NUDE photoshoots.

The 21-year-old scorcher, from Newcastle, said she gets a real thrill out of posing in the nuddy and loves being in front of the camera.

Sara also revealed that her biggest turn-on is dressing up in saucy lingerie in the bedroom – and after seeing these topless snaps, we're sure it'd get plenty of blokes hot under the collar, too!

Naked

The busty blonde stripped off and bared her eye-watering 34Ds for this saucy shoot in honour of being named our Spearmint Rhino Girl of the Week.

She told the Midweek Sport: "I get so turned-on whenever I dress up in sexy underwear.

By JESS GALLEY
jess@sundaysport.co.uk

"And I love modelling as it's such a big part of who I am. I especially love getting naked for the camera – so I loved shooting these photos!

"When it comes to guys, the biggest turn-off is when they think they can have you, as well as stringing along about five other girls. No thanks!

"My perfect date would just be something simple, like a Nandos and then out for a couple of drinks."

Spearmint Rhino has a number of gentleman's clubs around the world which boast the most beautiful dancers.

But if you can't make it to a club, you can find Spearmint Rhino girls at boxing and Mixed Martial Arts (MMA) fights around the country, or at the British Superbike Rounds.

WALES NAME NEW RUGBY UNION CAPTAIN

WYN THE BAG

105-cap veteran takes armband

HE PACKS A PUNCH: Jones (left) in action

By BILL HARE

ALUN Wyn Jones is the man with the tough job of replacing Sam Warburton as Wales captain.

The Ospreys lock is no spring chicken at 31 and has pulled on the red jersey an impressive 105 times.

Warburton has been named in a 36-man squad for the Six Nations — but he's far from assured of his place in Rob Howley's side.

The coach said: "It's an honour to select Alun Wyn as captain.

"His vast experience, as a player and a leader, will help drive this squad forward, and I believe he will flourish in the role.

"Sam has led Wales more times than any other captain, and had great success in the role.

"However, we want him to concentrate on his game and to be the best player he can be. We had conversations during and since the autumn with Sam.

"No player is guaranteed their place in an international team and we want Sam to be playing his very best rugby and he agrees it's the best way forward."

It's the end of an era for Warburton, who first captained Wales in 2011 and was British Lions skipper for the winning 2013 tour of Australia.

Campaign

Howley has picked a number of young players with Wasps flanker Thomas Young and Leicester back Owen Williams in line for their first caps.

Wales open their Six Nations campaign in Rome where they face Italy on February 5.

And Howley is doing his best to blend youth and experience.

He added: "We have named an exciting and experienced squad.

"There is a flavour of freshness in the squad, with seven uncapped players deserving their opportunity, and it will be exciting to see how they perform.

"We have the all-important carrot of Rugby World Cup seedings on the horizon post-tournament and that is an important target for us, especially as we welcome England and Ireland to the Principality Stadium."

BACKS: L Halfpenny (Toulon), L Williams (Scarlets), G North (Northampton), S Evans (Scarlets), A Cuthbert (Blues), A Hewitt (Newport Gwent Dragons), S Williams (Scarlets), J Davies (Scarlets), J Roberts (Harlequins), O Williams (Leicester), S Davies (Ospreys), D Biggar (Ospreys), G Davies (Scarlets), R Webb (Ospreys), A Davies (Scarlets).

NEW COACH: Chapple

Glen's the new Chap in charge at Lancs

CRICKET

LANCASHIRE have appointed Glen Chapple as their new coach.

The county stalwart and former England international seamer takes the reins from Ashley Giles who has returned to Warwickshire.

Chapple has been with the county for more than 20 years and was still turning out last season aged 42.

He took almost 1,400 wickets in 664 appearances.

His assistant is another long-serving Lancashire player in former opening batsman Mark Chilton.

Chapple said: "Mark and I are committed to delivering a team that the whole club, the members, the supporters and the county of Lancashire can be proud of.

Fortune

"We have an incredibly talented and young group of players at Old Trafford, and we are hugely excited about the coming season and few years ahead, and what we believe we can achieve."

Meanwhile, Joe Root has turned down the chance to earn a fortune in the Indian Premier League.

The 26-year-old has been offered telephone numbers to play in the Twenty20 competition.

But Root says England comes first and he wants a break in April rather than taking part.

He added: "It is a shame because there is a really good window in the international calendar to play. But looking at the schedule, especially next winter, I am going to be away for long periods.

"This will be a great opportunity to spend time at home and watch my son Alfred grow up a little bit."

TOON AND GLOOM: Zola and Benitez

RAFA CAN KO ZOLA

NEWCASTLE v BIRMINGHAM

★ The Toon Army fired themselves back to the summit of the Championship with a 1-2 victory against Brentford.

Rafa made a whopping eight changes for the FA Cup tie away at Birmingham.

It finished 1-1 and a replay is far from ideal, but you have to fancy the Geordies to see off Zola's Birmingham this time around.

Benitez won the FA Cup in 2006 with Liverpool, although winning promotion back to the Premier League is top of the agenda, he will want to remain in this wonderful competition.

Newcastle are sweating on a few injuries, most notably top scorer Dwight Gayle and it is extremely likely he will play no part in this fixture.

It will be an opportunity for the squad to show their strength and depth. I'm all over a Newcastle win at 4/7 and will be amazed if we are not collecting.

PLYMOUTH v LIVERPOOL

★ Brave Plymouth have got their rich reward with a money boosting replay against the mighty Liverpool in the FA Cup.

The tie at Anfield is one that will most definitely not live long in the memory banks. It was a pretty dull affair, but tonight it can be a different story.

The games are coming quick and fast for Liverpool. It is a pretty safe bet that Klopp will ring the changes, but I still fancy them to get the job done.

There looks a big chance Sturridge will lead the line and that will put the fear of God in to the Plymouth defenders.

Coutinho put in a 30 minute shift on Sunday against Man Utd at Old Trafford and looked outstanding.

He may not be risked from the start, but he will likely be on the bench and if needed he can be call on to do the damage. This competition is a big opportunity for Liverpool to win some silverware, on any given day the Reds can beat anyone and they could go all the way.

The bookmakers are not giving us anything, they've gone a best price 3/10, so I have hunted us out something bigger.

Let's jump on Sturridge to score and Liverpool to win at 10/11.

SOUTHAMPTON v NORWICH

★ These two played out a thrilling 2-2 draw and there is every chance this FA Cup replay will be another exciting encounter.

All is not well for the Saints in the Premier League, they've just lost 1-0 to lowly Burnley and are struggling in 13th.

That is now four league defeats in a row and panic is starting to set in. It is not all doom and gloom though, far from it because it is a different story in the cups. They lead 1-0 over Liverpool in the Semi-Final of the League Cup and they should see off Norwich here to remain in the FA Cup.

Claude Puel can not really afford to make any big changes here, or let me put it this way he can't afford to lose this match.

His position is far from strong with the board and a defeat against Norwich could really put him under huge pressure.

That pressure pot can be used in our favour and make the 8/13 look positively huge come the final whistle.

UNLUCKY ALF: Rudy Gestede

STAT OF THE WEEK

★ Rudy Gestede is a record breaker, the striker has now not won in 32 Premier League games, 31 of them with Villa and one with his new club Middlesbrough.

It's a shocking record and with Boro facing West Ham next there is every chance if he's picked that record could be extended. Previous worst; Darren Moore 31, Alan Hutton 30 and Kenny Miller 29.

KERCHING

★ I'm back and causing mayhem, my followers heard the beautiful sound of the bookmakers tills going 'kerching' after we smashed it up at the weekend.

Kane to score and Spurs to win, Stoke and West Ham to win ensured we had a clean sweep in the Premier League. Another bonus also came for Twitter followers,

I tipped up Optimus Prime at 5/1. He romped to victory on the brilliant Towcester eight-dog racing show live on AtTheRaces. Make sure you are following me @MickLivesey.

KLOPP FUMES AT FIFA

Kop boss angry that he can't pick Matip

JURGEN Klopp says he won't risk Joel Matip against Plymouth because of a Fifa rule that "defies human sense".

Because the big centre-half is not with Cameroon at the African Nations Cup he risks an eight-match ban if he plays for Liverpool during the tournament.

That's despite not turning out for his nation in 18 months and not being named in the squad for the ANC.

It's because Cameroon haven't formally released Matip from international duty. That's why he couldn't play against Manchester United at the weekend either.

By JOHN ANTHONY

Ahead of the FA Cup third-round replay, it's driving Klopp nuts.

He fumed: "There was not a lot of times in my life that I was in a situation like this.

"I don't want to blame anyone, but our supporters deserve to know about the process we are in.

"The thing is that in this moment, we are sure we've done nothing wrong. Joel Matip did nothing wrong.

"He did not play for Cameroon since 2015. In this moment he is not in the squad, but we have no 100% guarantee that he could play for us.

"I accept rules in life, but I think they are based on human sense. For me it is pretty difficult.

"If Fifa opens a case, and I don't think they will, then it would be between seven and 10 days, in our situation that would have meant United involved, Plymouth involved, Swansea involved.

"If the result is what we think it would be, and everything is okay, then he didn't play eight games without doing anything wrong.

ANGRY: Klopp

Draw

"As a human being it's hard for me. We have a fit player, doing really well in training and didn't play for Cameroon in 15 months and we can't use him. It's really difficult."

Despite the admin nightmare, Klopp is still looking forward to his trip to Home Park.

The German says he has massive respect for the way Plymouth fought for a draw at Anfield.

He added: "All my respect. It was a really concentrated defensive performance.

"All the credit to Plymouth. It's up to us.

"We cannot wait to try a counter attack, but there are possibilities to speed up the game.

"To go to the next round for a League Two team they should absolutely concentrate on defence. It makes sense."

Klopp also confirmed that Loris Karius will replace Simon Mignolet in goal against Argyle.

IN THE STANDS: Joel Matip

NEIL FIGHTS FOR HIS FUTURE

Southampton v Norwich

Wednesday, 7.45pm kick-off

NORWICH boss Alex Neil knows he faces a big fight to win back the Canaries' support.

City are struggling to mount a Championship challenge and there were chants of "Neil out" from the travelling fans as they lost to lowly Rotherham at the weekend.

The Scot is under pressure to turn things around and even a win at Southampton in the FA Cup might not be enough.

He said: "The fans made their feelings clear. Listen, there is nothing I can do about that.

"They will say what they want to say.

"After beating Derby, everyone said how well we had played and it was the exact same team that took the field, apart from Martin Olsson.

"It is a backward step, really frustrating and disappointing.

"We felt we were building some momentum, particularly after Derby, but we didn't perform with 11 anywhere near we can."

Norwich aren't being helped by an injury and suspension crisis.

Neil added: "We have Alex Tettey one booking from a ban and now we are light on midfielders. By the end of the last game I had Steven Nasimith, Alex Pritchard and Wes Hoolahan as my middle three.

"That is pretty much all I have fit and available. We have one midfielder now, when we started the season with five and people said we were overloaded."

Southampton have injury problems of their own and boss Claude Puel could be forced to recall Jose Fonte.

That's because Virgil Van Dijk is struggling to shake off an injury.

Fonte has been left out in the cold since agitating for a move away from St Mary's. But Puel might have no choice when Norwich come to the south coast.

Puel has not picked the Portuguese international since he made it clear he wanted to leave.

The manager said: "The situation for the next games is this, but I know that if we need with the urgency of the situation I know I can count about Jose, because it's a professional player, important, and I know he gives the best on the ground. This is important.

"I respect Jose and I know we can count on him if the situation is like this."

LAST CHANCE: Alex Neil

POWERPLAY: Benitez

Rafa won't be driven out of Toon by Carr

Newcastle United v Birmingham City

Wednesday, 7.45pm kick-off

RAFA Benitez has laughed off suggestions that Mike Ashley is in control of transfers at St James's Park.

Inside talk says the owner wants new chief scout Graham Carr the last say — along with him — on who comes to the club.

That would go down like a cup of cold sick with Benitez who famously left then Spanish champions Valencia in a row over transfers.

Toon fans are rightly worried that Rafa will walk again should he not get what he wants.

But he is playing down the rumours, saying: "I am not worried, I am working and trying to do the right things for us.

"My priority is to be sure that the team is strong enough to compete from now until the end of the season.

"I will do that until the last day of the transfer window and after that I will coach the team until the end of the season. I don't have any problem with that.

Pitch

"The final say is something simple to say, what I need is to have the list of players we want to sign. It's not a problem.

"We are working very hard and hopefully we will sign what we need and hopefully we will get what we need."

Benitez has to make a call on the pitch on whether Jonjo Shelvey is involved on his return from suspension.

The Spaniard said: "We have to decide if he starts. With so many games we have to manage the squad, but he has trained."

Newcastle take on a Birmingham side that will be shaken up by boss Gianfranco Zola.

The Italian has confirmed that he will make changes as he puts his focus on the Championship.

Zola said: "We will make some changes. We have a very important game on Saturday.

"Some players have little physical issues. But we are still gong to put a strong side out. I personally rate the FA Cup very much, if I can go further in this competition I will be very, very delighted."

TOP EFFORT: Argyle at Anfield

Kop to get job done at Home Park

THE last time Plymouth avoided defeat in the FA Cup to a top-flight team was 1989 when they drew with Everton before going on to lose the replay.

The winners that year were none other than Liverpool who beat the Blues 3-2 after extra-time in the last all Merseyside cup final.

I think it remains the only FA Cup final when four of the five goals (Rush 2, McCall 2) were scored by substitutes.

Kevin Stewart (53) made the same amount of successful passes as the whole Plymouth side in the first half at Anfield and the Pilgrims will have to come out and try to attack more back at Home Park and that will surely be the difference in tonight's replay.

Ahead of the tie Liverpool are 13/2 at BetVictor to lift the trophy but only 3/10 to beat the Pilgrims in 90 minutes.

The Reds are 6/5 to win the game to nil and that must be the recommendation although the hosts came from a goal down to beat Stevenage 4-2 in front of over 8,000 fans in League Two at Home Park at the weekend.

Chelsea were the winners at Old Trafford when Liverpool were the visitors on Sunday and the Reds are now 6/1 at BetVictor for the Premier League title with Chelsea 4/7, Spurs 8s and 12s Bar.

★ We all have our favourite players and I would love to say England ODI captain Eoin Morgan is one of mine – but I can't!

I was disappointed that as skipper he refused to go on the recent tour of Bangladesh but appreciate that is his decision.

What I cannot agree with is him returning to the side as captain for the current ODI series as captain when he is palpably not worth his place in the side.

His fielding is average, captaincy OK but his batting is currently just not good enough. I know he got 28 at a run a ball in the first ODI but he is not in the same class or form as Johnny Bairstow or Sam Billings and how he has an IPL contract and Ben Stokes not is one of the mysteries of world cricket.

Rant over I just can't see how England can stop this wonderful Indian batting line up and I really do think the Evens with BetVictor for India to win the series 3-0 is good value. The second ODI is tomorrow and the hosts are 4/9 to take a winning 2-0 lead in the series with the tourists 7/4 to level the series.

★ A big day for British tennis in Melbourne yesterday with, at the time of writing, five players and the hope of a sixth through to the second round of a Slam for the first time since Wimbledon 2006.

Jo Konta overcame a tricky opening game, ultimately in straight sets, against Kirsten Flipkens in the opening round and the fancy prices about the Brit to win the tournament are all gone.

She is in the same quarter of the draw as Serena Williams who was awesome in the opening round but I think Konta is the real deal and is 16/1 to lift the trophy and 4/1 to win her quarter.

Konta came of age when demolishing Agnieszka Radwanska in the final in Sydney last week and she should have far too much next up for Naomi Osaka.

Yes she has a very difficult looking draw with 17th seed Caroline Wozniacki and sixth seed Dominika Cibulkova lying in wait ahead of the possible quarter-final with Serena, but she is playing the best tennis of her life at present and who knows where her Australian journey will end.

Milan make loan move for Deulofeu

AC MILAN are trying to bring Everton winger Gerard Deulofeu to the San Siro this month.

The Italian giants like the look of the 22-year-old who joined the Toffees from Barcelona in 2015.

He has struggled to hold down a regular place since then and has scored just two league goals. But that isn't putting off the Italians who would like to bring him in.

A loan deal looks the most likely with a view to making it permanent if Deulofeu settles in Serie A. Toffees boss Ronald Koeman is happy for the Frenchman to go and he's not even been on the Everton bench lately.

NO FAN: Koeman

AC Milan chief executive Adriano Galliani said: "I don't like to make predictions on what Milan could achieve this season, as I don't know the future, but what happened so far is very good.

"We are talking for Deulofeu, but there is no agreement yet. Everton know full well we can only do loans or with option to buy.

Future

"Plus there are these pro-Barcelona clauses.

"We will discuss it and try to find a solution, otherwise we'll remain with the squad as we are.

"I made a pledge, that as long as I am the CEO of Milan, I will think about this club 24 hours a day. I am absolutely concentrated on the Rossoneri. I'll only think about my future after the closing."

The much less glamorous surroundings of Boro is the alternative destination for Deulofeu with Aitor Karanka also interested in a loan move.

CATS CALL: Jagielka

Another player who could be on his way out of Goodison is Phil Jagielka.

Sunderland boss David Moyes is desperate to be reunited with the man he made captain at Goodison Park.

The 34-year-old is in his 10th year with the Toffees and still has the armband.

The Black Cats are in the middle of a crisis with 11 players on duty at the African Nations Cup.

Moyes wants the experienced Jagielka to lead from the back and is hopeful of tying up a deal this month.

He still has more than a year left on his contract with Everton but if he wants to leave then Koeman won't stand in his way.

Ramiro Funes Mori has formed a good partnership with Ashley Williams.

STAYING: Valencia

Valencia gets extra year at Old Trafford

MANCHESTER United have signed up Antonio Valencia until 2018.

The Red Devils have triggered a one-year extension in the 31-year-old's deal.

He has been at Old Trafford since moving from Wigan in 2009.

Now thought of as a right-back, the former winger has been one of the first name on Jose Mourinho's teamsheet this season.

A statement from the club read: "Manchester United have confirmed a clause has been triggered to extend Antonio Valencia's contract by one year, keeping the experienced Ecuadorian at Old Trafford until at least June 2018."

The move comes on the back of triggering a similar clause in Marouane Fellaini's contract.

Form

Mourinho said: "I tried to sign Antonio a number of years ago, when I was at Madrid.

"Even though he was not playing right-back at the time, I thought he could be phenomenal in that position. As it was, United told me no chance.

"I am not surprised by his form this season.

"He has been clean of injuries, save for an operation on his arm which did not keep him out for long, and I have also been able to keep him fresh by resting him in certain Europa League games.

"I think he is the right-back to give us the maximum we can in terms of our attacking football."

United are still trying to offload Memphis Depay while the transfer window is open.

They have turned down a £13million bid for the Dutchman from Lyon.

United paid £25m for the winger in summer 2015 and want more than half their money back.

It's thought that Mourinho will let him go if the French side put £18m on the table in the next two weeks.

ON PLANET FOR TOTTENHAM HOTSHOT

BEST BOSS MO SPURS HARRY ON

That's why I won't leave says Kane

By PAUL THOMAS

HARRY Kane says he loves playing for Spurs boss Mauricio Pochettino — because he's the best boss in the world.

Kane is being targeted for a big-money move to China where he could be paid an absolute fortune.

But he says he has no interest in leaving White Hart Lane — and the top gaffer on the planet.

He said last night: "For me he's the best or definitely one of the best in the world.

"Not just on the pitch but off the pitch as well — he's a great man-manager.

"He gets his tactics spot on pretty much every game. He's an incredible person.

"We all want to battle for him and he earns that respect from us. We give him respect, he gives us respect and I can't speak highly enough of him."

Quality

Pochettino has steered Tottenham into second spot in the Premier League and they are poised to throw down a title challenge to London rivals Chelsea.

But the Argie wants to add to his squad, hopefully even in this window.

Quality is what he is looking for but admits that Spurs don't have the money to match many of their rivals in Europe and the Orient.

Mo Po said: "Money solves problems because it allows you to buy quality.

"Scenarios like Tottenham make you be more creative. I would love to work with Cristiano Ronaldo, Lionel Messi, Luka Modric, Gerard Pique, Sergio Ramos, Philipp Lahm, Neymar, Luis Suarez. With those kinds of players, a lot of your work would already be done.

"But if you are at Espanyol like I was before, where every six months you have to sell your best players and your only resources are in the youth team, it is clear I will adapt to that. The same is true when we are at Southampton, where we had young players with great talent.

"The same again at Tottenham. When I arrived, I found a team that needed to be given a new identity, and there are players who would not adapt to the profile of what I wanted to create.

"In future, it will again be about the project and the circumstances I find.

"Here at Tottenham, we have players from the youth system, like Harry Winks and Josh Onomah. We have Harry Kane and Dele Alli, too.

"Do I love working with young players? Yes, but as long as they are right for the project in progress."

TACTIC-TASTIC: Three at the back suits Eriksen

Cover

Christian Eriksen is another who is full of praise for his gaffer. The Dane thinks Mo Po's change to three at the back has helped free up the midfield to be more creative.

They don't have to worry quite so much about getting back with more defensive cover behind them.

Eriksen said: "I think you just feel a bit more controlled when you have three at the back.

"When you move the ball quickly you have space to move it forward and if you take a good decision, then you create a lot of chances."

DELAY: Mertesacker

Per holds fire on his new deal at Arsenal

PER Mertesacker is the latest Arsenal player who has yet to sign a new contract.

It has been widely reported that the German has put pen to paper for another year at the Emirates.

But the 32-year-old has NOT committed his future to the Gunners and his contract is up in the summer.

That means he's free to talk to other clubs about signing on a free.

Mertesacker has not featured since April for Arsenal after going down with a knee problem.

It is thought that there is a year on the table at £70,000 per week but the deal has yet to be finalised.

Arsenal fans have been given a glimmer of hope by Alexis Sanchez saying he is happy at the club.

The Chilean is the main man without a new deal at the Emirates.

And he raised the blood pressure of Gooners when sulking on the bench after being subbed in the 4-0 win at Swansea on Saturday.

Prove

Along with Mezut Ozil, talks are not progressing and there are just 18 months to go on their contracts in north London.

But Sanchez has come out and spoken about the speculation.

He said: "I definitely feel like an important player, and my team-mates let me know every day.

"I try to prove that I am an important player every day and game after game.

"I believe we have the players and the quality to win many things.

"I feel really happy and comfortable at the club. I want to give the fans a new title.

"We always get our fans' support in the thick and thin, which is great. We must win the Premier League or Champions League for them."

It is all sweetness and light for Sanchez though.

He could cop a £1.8million fine after admitting tax avoidance while playing for Barcelona.

His trouble comes after not declaring all his earnings on image rights in 2012 and 2013.

Lionel Messi and Neymar have also got in trouble with the tax authorities while playing at the Nou Camp.

Diego trains again after China crisis blows over

DIEGO Costa's move to China looks to be off — as he returns to training at Chelsea.

The Spaniard was missing at the weekend with a "back injury" admit talk of him wanting a big-money move east.

Tianjin Quanjian were reportedly offering £570,000 A WEEK for him to sign.

Chelsea owner Roman Abramovic has hit the roof and the Chinese side know there's no prospect of a deal being done this month.

The Blues are determined to keep their main striker, who has banged in 14 goals in 19 games this season.

Tianjin are also owned by a billionaire but he seems to have got the message from Abramovic.

But Shu Yuhui said last night that a new rule limiting Chinese league teams to just three foreign players is what has put a hold on the deal.

He said: "This situation has brought a change to our signing plans.

"If the rule had been five players as in the past, then we would have made a big investment this year, but now it seems to be changed to three. The online reports about Costa, it's true we'd like him, and we made an offer for Edinson Cavani and were deep in negotiations."

Yuhui confirms that the Spaniard's agent Jorge Mendes has been in China and that a deal was on the cards.

He added: "Mendes came to my home a few days ago and we also had ideas about Costa, but in the process were ready to sign two players, the contracts were done, the price was good — Radamel Falcao and Raul Jimenez.

"The contracts were ready, the two players ready to sign, and then we get the news about the salary limits and restrictions on foreign players, so that made us change."

Costa's return to training doesn't mean he's happy though. Other Chinese clubs are certain to come sniffing around in the summer knowing that he fancies a move.

And there could be competition from closer to home too given that Barcelona and his former club Atletico Madrid would like him.
